A day in the life of a customer Meet an Indonesia Customer

Decan's phone alarm goes off at 6.55 a.m.

Decan going for a short jog around the housing complex.

She drives her motorbike to the nearest commuter line station.

She checks her social media and reads the news while commuting to work.

At lunch time, she checks her social media again to relieve her stress at work. She finds an influencer talk about a product.

She checks her social media to see trending topics and heads to bed.

When she got home, she watched another live shopping review content during her dinner and realize the product been talked a lot. Then decided to buy the recommended product

Risa leaves work at 5.45 p.m. and spends more time short videos on social media to pass the time until she arrives home safely.
